Cuddles with a cause. Every purchase helps rescue, rehabilitate, and release endangered seabirds back into the wild.

HI! I'M POPPY

SANCCOB™

saves seabirds

Our exclusive SANCCOB Plush Collection is more than just a range of adorable toys, it's a lifeline for endangered species. A percentage of each sale goes towards SANCCOB.

WHY IT MATTERS

The African penguin is currently facing a fight for survival against extinction and is currently listed as critically endangered. When you bring home a penguin from this collection, you aren't just getting a new friend; you are saving lives.

YOUR IMPACT

By purchasing from our SANCCOB range, you are contributing to the protection and preservation of these charming birds. Every sale helps fund SANCCOB's crucial work, from rescuing injured penguins to supporting breeding and research programs aimed at bolstering the wild population.

Gift someone special, and SANCCOB is gifted too.
